

Victorian 70s Selection Trail (Australian Walking Football Seventies)

The AWFS conducted a selection trial in Caulfield North, Victoria on 9th May. Players from various areas in and around Melbourne were asked to demonstrate their skills under the assessment of Kimon Taliadoros, a former Socceroo player and ex CEO of Football Victoria.

John, David, Jim, Anthony, Robert, Sam, and Marc faced off against members of the Sunbury walking football team in a series of fast-paced games. Kimon was impressed enough after the session to say that he has decided to try having a go at walking football.

A special thanks goes out to Kevin Milstein, AWFS Victorian committee member, for organising the event at the Maccabi field, and to Mike Trim from WFFA for officiating the matches.

With talent scouts and selectors spread across the country, the AWFS identifies players over 70 participating in walking football - currently numbering around 90 individuals. These players form AWFS Over 70s teams to take part in tournaments both within Australia and on an international level. The current Over 70s team (Walkaroos) is en route to Chesterfield, UK to compete in the IWFF Nations Championships.
